

MA
PETITE HISTOIRE

This is a two-page worksheet template designed to look like an open book or a house. Each page features a large, empty rectangular box at the top, intended for a drawing or illustration. Below each box are seven horizontal lines for writing. The pages are separated by a central vertical line.

The image shows a two-page worksheet template. Each page is designed to look like a house with a triangular roof. The main body of each page is divided into two sections: a large, empty rectangular box at the top, intended for a drawing or illustration, and a section below it consisting of seven horizontal lines for writing. The pages are symmetrical and separated by a central vertical line.

This is a two-page worksheet template designed to look like an open book or a house. Each page features a large, empty rectangular box at the top, intended for a drawing or illustration. Below each box are seven horizontal lines for writing. The pages are separated by a central vertical line.

This is a two-page worksheet template designed to look like an open book or a house. Each page features a large, empty rectangular box at the top, intended for a drawing or illustration. Below each drawing box are seven horizontal lines, providing space for writing or notes. The entire layout is symmetrical and centered on a white background.